ONE LETTER IN EVIDENCE

ATTORNEY BRINGING OUT CORRESPONDENCE SHOWING VARIOUS DISCUSSIONS OF THE MOTIVES FOR BRINGING THE SUIT—LOW ACTED AT THE SOLICITATION OF THE HAMAKUA DITCH CO., BUT SAYS HE MIGHT HAVE ACTED ALONE.

A copy of one of the letters so much talked of in the Parker ranch case was introduced in evidence this morning during the cross-examination of J. A. Magoon by W. A. Kinney. It was introduced as a letter from J. S. Low to Hind, Ralph Company of San Francisco, dated October 29, 1904, and was brought by Magoon in answer to demands made by Kinney for it last Saturday. Magoon objected to producing it in court, stating that Low desired to produce it himself when on the stand. Kinney and Ballou demanded that it be placed in evidence and Judge Lindsay ruled that it must be produced. It was then read and placed in evidence. The copy was a letter press demands made by Kinney for it last Saturday.

REPRESENTATIVE RICE PUTS IT UP TO THE GOVERNOR

DENIES THE GOVERNOR'S STATEMENT TO THE HILO BOARD OF TRADE THAT IT WAS THE OUTSIDE LEGISLATORS' FAULT THAT THE INCOME TAX MUDDLE EXISTS—SAYS CARTER LOBBIED TO DEFEAT THEIR EFFORTS.

The Garden Island of October 30, will print the following letter from Representative Charles A. Rice in relation to Governor Carter's letter to the Hilo Board of Trade about the corporation income taxes. In this he flatly contradicts statements by the Governor.

Lihue, Kauai, October 26, 1905. Editor Garden Island, Sir: I have read the letter written by Governor G. R. Carter to the Hilo Chamber of Commerce, dated October 21st, in which he states that the members of the last legislature are entirely to blame for the trouble the outside counties find themselves in regarding their just share of the corporation income taxes.

Governor Carter states that the outside members did not try to adjust the law so as to prevent any dispute about the share of the outside counties in the income taxes, and by their indifference practically agreed that Oahu County should have all income taxes. I deem it my duty as a member of the last legislature to take issue on his statement of fact.

The outside members all wanted this matter adjusted so as to make all dispute as to where the taxes should go, impossible, and to that end introduced the following amendment to the income tax act and passed the same through the House, to-wit: "Section 9. Where Tax Payable. The taxes on income imposed by this chapter shall be payable in the Taxation Division in which the person has his legal residence and in the case of a corporation in the Taxation Division where the property of the corporation or the major part thereof is located."

This amendment was passed through the House by the unanimous vote of all outside members and was opposed by the unanimous vote of all members from Oahu. This amendment was killed in the Senate by the interference of the Treasurer and the Governor, who represented that such an amendment might invalidate the constitutionality of the income tax act, and thus defeat a good law which the Supreme Court had upheld in its former condition.
